

Right & Left game

As I read the story, whenever you hear the word RIGHT continuously pass the gifts to the RIGHT until you hear the word LEFT, then continuously pass your gifts to the LEFT!

Frosty, the LEFT-handed snowman is a fairytale they say. He was made of BRIGHT white snow, but the children know he came RIGHT to life one day. There must have been some magic, LEFT in that old silk hat they found. For when they placed it RIGHT on his head, he began to dance RIGHT around. Oh, Frosty the LEFT-handed snowman was alive and had to hurry on his way, but the children say he could laugh, WRITE, and play just the same as you and me.

He led them RIGHT down the streets of town, LEFT of the traffic cop, and only paused a moment when he raised his RIGHT hand and hollered, "Stop!"

For Frosty the LEFT-handed snowman had to hurry RIGHT on his way. But he waved goodbye and LEFT, saying, "Oh don't you cry I'll be RIGHT back again some day."

Now you know how his story went. Which way did the gifts go? To the RIGHT or to the LEFT? Stop the passing and open your gift!
